Cases of Lost Indian Passport:

For Persons of Indian origin who lost their last held Indian passport, following are the guidelines for applying for Surrender/Renunciation certificate:

(i) For applicants who had acquired citizenship before June 1, 2010 and have lost their last held Indian passport- Email a copy of first and last page of your Indian passport at attest.toronto@mea.gov.in for clearance to file affidavit. Once the clearance is obtained, please fill up the affidavit at click here. This filled-up document needs to be notarised by Notary Public and then further attested by the Consulate General of India, Toronto via BLS. Thereafter, this attested affidavit along with copy of first and last page of lost Indian Passport and all the documents required for applying for OCI, as per Consulate's website, can be used for applying for OCI at the nearest BLS center.

(ii) For applicants who had acquired citizenship after June 1, 2010 and have lost their last held Indian passport- Applicant needs to share a copy of the lost passport at attest.toronto@mea.gov.in seeking clearance to apply for a renunciation certificate. Once the Consulate conveys its approval the applicant may submit an application for surrender certificate with the copy of the lost passport for applying for surrender certificate at the nearest BLS center. The Consulate will issue a Renunciation Certificate in place of Surrender Certificate. This Renunciation Certificate with copy of first and last page of lost Indian Passport along with all the documents required for applying for OCI, as per Consulate's website can be submitted at the nearest BLS center.
